ROG 10MC

The ROG 10MC is a lightweight micro-toy hauler that's perfect for transporting an ATV, smaller motorcycles, high-end bicycles or any other toy that you want to keep safe and secure. The optional roof rack can handle kayaks, canoes or even a roof top tent for additional sleeping space. Extend your camping season with the standard LP furnace that's perfect for those times when you're off-grid. The 10MC is ready to tackle all kinds of terrain with the all-aluminum frame and 100% wood-free construction that utilizes lightweight composite materials. With a base weight of just 1400 lbs, the 10MC can be pulled by most vehicles and fits inside a standard size garage. The ROG 10MC is Adventure Ready...are you?
